

Principal's Message

Dear CNites, Staff, Parents and Well-wishers,

We come to the end of the second term which was filled with colourful events. Heartfelt congratulations on your outstanding achievements in studies, arts, sports, and the spectacular Annual day Celebrations. Your all-round development is truly commendable, and I am delighted in your accomplishments. Keep up the excellent work!

Your dedication and talents shine brightly, contributing to the overall success of our school. Your hard work and resilience have brought us to this milestone. Reflect on your achievements, learn from experiences, and recharge during the break for another marvellous year. Christmas is a celebration of giving, sharing and spending time with the loved ones. It is a time for joy, love and compassion. May the festive spirit fill your hearts with warmth and happiness. Enjoy the upcoming Christmas holidays, make cherished memories, and return refreshed for the new year ahead. As you leave for your Christmas vacation, I extend warm wishes to each of you. May this festive season be a fruitful and meaningful one. Take the time to rest and rejuvenate, and return in the new year with renewed energy. Wishing all a Joyous Christmas, and Blessed New Year!

God bless you!
God bless CNIS!

Teachers' Day & Talents Day

The CNIS Student Council paid a befitting tribute to their facilitators on 5 September 2023. The Teachers' Day celebration was a beautiful reminder of the immense impact teachers have on their students' lives. Music was the prime event as CNite Ishan Anas and team serenaded the crowd with a cover of In This Moment by Alison Yap, which was followed by a beautiful speech on Teachers' Day by CNite Joel George Thomas. CNite Vibha Rajesh designed beautiful notebook-inspired cards for our Teaching Faculty. The musical chair for teachers added a tinge of fun to the occasion.

Talents Day was conducted on 12 September 2023, as an extension to the Teachers' Day Celebration. Students of Grades X, XI & XII participated in the event by reversing roles with their beloved teachers. In a colourful Opening Ceremony that witnessed the ceremonial parade of the student teachers, Fr. Principal declared CNite Vibha Rajesh as the Student Principal and CNite Krishnan Sreekumar as the Student Vice Principal. The traditional Chakra was handed over by Fr. Principal, marking the transfer of responsibilities for the day to the CNites. Students entertained the teachers by organizing games. The closing ceremony in which the awards were declared, was held at 1.40pm.

Harmony of Hope

Harmony of hope - An Eve to Believe, a fund raiser event, was organised at the Kowdiar campus on 16 September. The goal was to raise funds for a noble cause. Under the able tutelage of Fr. Principal, the students, teachers, parents, well-wishers and alumni of the school put together a memorable event filled with music, dance and fun. We collaborated with the other Christ Nagar Schools, Christ Nagar College Maranalloor and Trivandrum International School. The students from these institutions also put up a splendid performance. The event proved that we rise by helping others rise.

Grandparents' Day

The class assembly of Grade VIII was held on 20 September 2023 on the theme, Grandparents' Day. The students presented an array of performances to entertain their grandparents, including a heart-rending skit. CNites of Grade X distributed welcome cards to the grandparents and lovingly applied sandalwood paste on their forehead. Grandfather of CNite Madhav Krishna, Dr G N R Nair and Grandmother of CNite Arnav and Adwaith Komban, Smt. Savitri Amma were honoured with Ponnada by Principal, Rev. Fr. Thomas Chennattusserry CMI. The events ended with a note of gratitude from the grandparents expressing their utmost happiness in getting a chance to participate in the beautiful assembly organised only for them.

CNIS Annual Sports Meet

Conducted for the first time on the school grounds, on 30 September 2023, the 20th Annual Sports Meet got the CNIS athletes competing with one another in multiple events under the banners of the 4 Houses, Amazon, Ganges, Nile and Volga. The Meet began with the March Past, as part of the Opening Ceremony, where the athletes marched in unison and gave the official salute to the Chief Guest, Ms. Lekha, the renowned world women's boxing champion and the recipient of the Dhyani Chand Award. The Meet was officially inaugurated with the lighting of the Olympic torch, carried by the House Captains, igniting a flame of determination in every heart. The Chief Guest administered the oath and declared the Meet open. What ensued was a spectacular display of energy and sportive rhythm. Muscles ached, lungs burned, but the spirit remained unbending.

Inter House Handball Finals

In the way too exciting finals of the Inter-House Handball tournament, on 15 November 2023, Volga House and Ganges House emerged winners in the Boys' and Girls' categories respectively, the Runners Up being Ganges and Nile. CNites Shaun Hayden of Grade XI and Mehreen A Latheef of Grade IX I were declared the Best Players and CNites Aditya Girish of Grade XI and Vasundhara S of Grade XI were the best Goal Keepers.

Kerala Piravi

CNites of Grade VII conducted their assembly on the theme Keralapiravi on 1 November 2023. The colourful celebration upheld the spirit of the occasion. The skit spoke volumes of the importance of holding onto one's culture and roots. CNites showcased their multifarious talents and respected Fr. Principal gave the message on Kerala Piravi. The dance competition of the Kindergarteners added festive colours to the occasion.

Annual Educational Fair, Aurora 2023

The theme “Light” was well explored by the CNites of KG - Grade IX. They had chosen a topic befitting the sub theme of their class and spent time on the exhibit preparation and oral presentation. On 18 November 2023, CNites turned the school into a mega exhibition with their displays. Super Star Performers and Star Performers were chosen on the basis of the evaluation. The decoration of the classes was also evaluated. The opening ceremony was graced by the presence of guests Dr Anitha Prabhakaran, Senior Consultant of Pediatric Ophthalmology, Precise Speciality Eye Care and Ms Kripa Suresh, acclaimed photographer of Sony Youth World Awards and former CNite. They highlighted the importance of light for vision & photography, respectively, in their talks. The special attraction of the day was Dreamscape: The play of lights, a live show, set up by the senior CNites of Grade XII, which witnessed a good crowd and thereby a decent amount was collected for charity. Grade XI came forward as the coordinators of the Inter-school Quiz Competition based on the theme. The 1st Runner Up was Lecole Chempaka Silver Rocks.

Principal's Day

Principal's Day, celebrating our Fr. Principal's birthday, commenced with an assembly where students from all grades presented cards to him. The Student Council planned a surprise segment with a poem recital by CNite Anagha H Nair, a musical performance by the CNites and a kung fu display by CNite Joel George. The entire school extended their heartfelt wishes to Father on this special occasion. In the latter part of the day, the CNIS teaching and non-teaching staff organized an unforgettable get together for Fr. Principal. He was fondly showered with gifts, followed by a cake-cutting ceremony. Father expressed gratitude to the staff and students for creating a truly memorable day for him.

A Break from Books and a Boost for Learning

Amid the heaviness of tests, assignments and the constant pressure to excel, a sprinkle of leisure can work wonders. CNIS arranged leisure trips for the CNites, in November, to break free from class rooms, explore new environments and bond with their peers. The Kindergarteners and CNites of Grades I & II explored the hidden wonders of Playaza at Mall of Tavancore, while those of Grades III to VI visited the Planetarium and engaged in leisure activities at Funtura, Lulu Mall, on 10 November. The older CNites of Grades VII to IX were taken on a three-day fun trip to Wayanad and Wonderla, Kochi, from 8 to 11 November.

Buon Natale 2023

CNIS Annual Day with the Joy of Christmas

The 20 th Annual Day of CNIS embraced Christmas cheer and the pursuit of happiness on 8 December 2023. The celebrations got kickstarted in a solemn ceremony with traditional candle lighting and cutting of the ceremonial cake, performed by the Chief Guest, His Excellency the Most Revered Mar Thomas Tharayil, Auxiliary Bishop, Archdiocese of Changanassery. His Excellency was joined by Rev. Fr. Paul Mangad CMI, Our Honourable Manager, Rev. Fr. Joseph Vattaparampil CMI, our former Manager, Rev. Fr. Jimmy Moolayil CMI, Principal of Christ Nagar State School, Rev. Fr. Robin Anandakattu CMI, Rev. Fr. Thomas Chennattusserry CMI, our Principal, Rev. Fr. Robin Pathinarilchira CMI, our Bursar & Vice Principal and Rev. Fr. Tinson, Secretary to His Excellency.

A vibrant atmosphere filled the air as the Annual Day celebration unfolded, seamlessly blending the pursuit of happiness with the festive spirit of Christmas. The theme, 'Land of Happiness' resonated throughout the event, reflected in the colourful dances, thought-provoking skits, and joyous carol renditions. The angels gave way to the Nativity Play orchestrated by the parents of the CNIS family and was truly a sight to behold. The birth of Jesus Christ was celebrated in the land of happiness, and Santa Claus emerged with a touch of Christmas magic.

Community Service

On 16 December, students of Grade VIII visited Santhwana Rehabilitation centre at Puthenthope, Trivandrum, which works on the rehabilitation of the destitute facing psychological issues. The CNites came up with a fun filled entertainment programme for the inmates, interacting and playing games with them. They distributed cakes and spent a fruitful day with them. They also contributed biscuits, cookies and cleaning essentials.

As part of our community outreach programme, CNites of Grade IX visited to St. Benedict Menni Psychosocial Rehabilitation Centre, a women's mental health rehabilitation centre at Menamkulam. The children prepared an entertainment programme to engage the inmates. They enthralled them with their dance and music. Fr. Principal handed over a cheque. A fulfilling mid-day meal also was provided.

Merry Christmas!

The school opened its doors to yet another round of exciting Christmas programmes on 22 December, featuring a Carol Singing Competition for students from Grades I to XII. Each group delivered a flawless performance of carols under the guidance of teachers. Adding to the enjoyment, both teaching and non-teaching staff participated by singing carols. The festivities continued with class gift exchanges and small Christmas parties in each class. The teaching and non-teaching staff also had their own Christmas programme, including gift exchange and carolling. CNIS Chronicle, Christmas Edition, was released by Fr. Principal on the occasion. The school closed for the Christmas vacation on a memorable note.
